July is National Parks and Recreation Month

In 1985, the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA) designated the month of July as Parks and Recreation Month. Recreation facilities and parks across the country annually use July to celebrate the kick off of summer programming as well as a time to pull their communities together to volunteer, get involved in great outdoor physical activities and advocate for parks and recreation.

As part of this year's celebration, the City of Vacaville Community Services department is planning activities to keep the community active and involved. They have put together a calendar for the month of July, with an idea for a fun activity each day.

Channel 26 will also be supporting Parks and Recreation month by highlighting the activity idea of the day with video spots featuring Community Services staff. You can find the July calendar on the on the City of Vacaville website www.cityofvacaville.com, at any City community center, and at the Community Services booth every Friday of the month at the Creekwalk Concert Series.
