AIR FORCE'S 60TH ANNIVERSARY FLAG TO FLY OVER VACAVILLE

A flag commemorating the 60th anniversary of the United States Air Force will fly over the City of Vacaville in the coming days and months.

The flag will first fly over Vacaville City Hall from March 12-20; at the Vacaville Chamber of Commerce June 18-22; and at the flag poles in downtown Vacaville from July 30 through August 3.

Provided to the City by the United States Air Force through Travis Air Force Base, the flag is part of the base's overall celebration of the anniversary. The base will celebrate Air Force Week from June 4-10.

The purpose of Air Force Week is to inform and educate the American public, civic leaders, Congress, and service members about the importance and roles of the Air Force in America's national defense.
