Vacaville Police Department Announces 21st Community Law Enforcement Academy

The Vacaville Police Department is pleased to announce a Community Law Enforcement Academy for 2013. Members of the community who live or work in Vacaville are invited to apply for the eight-week program that will begin on Wednesday, January 16, 2013. The eight sessions will be held on consecutive Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Police Department. Attendees will learn about the operations of the Department, from patrol to narcotics enforcement, Communications Center operations to K-9 services, and from gang and crime suppression to crime prevention. In addition to the eight classroom sessions, a patrol ride-along is offered to all who attend the Academy.

Those who attend will gain new insights into police services and a greater appreciation for the men and women who provide these services. If you would like to attend, are at least 18-years old, and can pass a criminal history check, contact Crime Prevention Coordinator Gretchen Ash for an application at CrimePrevention@cityofvacaville.com or call her at 707-449-5432.

Check your calendars and get your application in early. Seats for the academy are limited to the first 30 applicants. There is no charge to attend!
