MISSING WOMAN FOUND DECEASED ON LEISURE TOWN ROAD

A woman missing since December 20 who told her family she was considering suicide was found dead Friday morning on Leisure Town Road.

On Thursday, December 27, 2012 the Vacaville Police Department asked the public for help in finding Cathleen Boland, 56, of Vacaville. A press release was issued and information was posted on the City's Facebook page.

On Friday morning, a Vacaville resident saw a white Dodge Neon matching the description of Boland's parked off Leisure Town Road in Vacaville and remembered reading about the at-risk missing person. Unsure if the car she saw matched the description of the missing person's car, the resident returned home and read about the case in the media. Believing the vehicle she saw did indeed match that of Boland's, the citizen drove back to the Dodge Neon to see if the license plate was a match.

The license plate did match and the citizen immediately called police. When officers arrived they found Boland in her vehicle, deceased. The death appears to have been caused by a gunshot wound. Detectives from the Investigative Services Section, who had been actively looking for Boland, responded to the scene and are continuing the investigation.

The Vacaville Police Department would like to thank all the citizens who follow us on Facebook, in the media, and are aware of the cases we are investigating. The extra eyes and ears help bring cases to a conclusion. If anyone has any information on where Boland was between the time she left and when she was found, please call the Vacaville Police Department at 449-5200 or contact Detective Mark Ferreira at 449-5258.

Criminal activity can be reported at www.cityofvacaville.com/departments/police, or you can call "Crime Stoppers" and leave an anonymous tip at 707-644-STOP (7867). Crime Stoppers may pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest.
