VACAVILLE RESIDENT ARRESTED FOR ELDER ABUSE

Vacaville police arrested a man on Saturday after the elderly woman he was allegedly abusing went to a nearby church seeking help.

A 74-year-old female entered the church in her South Vacaville neighborhood Saturday and asked for help, telling church officials that she had been a victim of elder abuse.

Officers contacted the victim and learned that she had over $700 stolen from her bank account and suffered physical and mental abuse by the suspect. The victim had also been threatened by the suspect.

Officers later arrested S-Kevin Wooten, 39, of Vacaville. S-Wooten was already on Post Release Community Supervision (PRCS) for a previous elder abuse conviction at the time of his arrest.

The Vacaville Police Department encourages anyone who may have information regarding this case to contact Officer Debi Lopez at (707) 449-5200.
