Narrative:

On May 1, 2014, officers from Vacaville Police Department's Youth Services Section (YSS) conducted directed enforcement in an effort to combat alcoholic beverage consumption by juveniles.

On Thursday night, officers worked with juvenile decoys who, under the direct supervision of officers, attempted to buy alcohol from businesses throughout the city. The decoys were directed to present their actual ID or tell their true age if asked.

Purchases were attempted at convenience stores, grocery stores, and liquor stores throughout the city. Of the 57 local businesses that were visited, four of them sold alcohol to the decoys. Of those four only one actually checked the ID of the decoy. All four of the clerks were issued a notice to appear for violation of 25658(a) B&P – Selling alcohol to a minor, which is a misdemeanor.

The Police Department applauds the 53 employees of the businesses who did not sell alcohol to the decoys.

The funds for this operation and the Alcohol, Tobacco and other Drugs efforts of the Vacaville Police Department's Youth Services Section is made possible through grants from the Solano County Board of Supervisors.

Residents are encouraged to report suspected illegal activity to the Police Department by calling the 24-hour non-emergency number 449-5200.
