On June 17, 2014 at 2:29 PM, the Vacaville Police Department received a call of an unattended suspicious suitcase in front of the Radio Shack business at 2080 Harbison Drive. According to a citizen, no one had been seen around the suitcase for at least 30 minutes. Officers arrived and viewed the suitcase and found its size and location very suspicious in nature.

The park lot and eight surrounding businesses were evacuated and cordoned off due to public safety concerns. The Yolo County Bomb Squad was dispatched to the scene. During their investigation, they determined that the suitcase contained clothing and related items.
