ROBBERY 'VICTIM' BECOMES SUSPECT IN DRUG CASE

An alleged robbery led to the victim being arrested for drug violations.

Vacaville police received a call from S-Ivory Easley, 22, of Porterville claiming to be the victim of a robbery in the parking lot in front of the Gucci Outlet at the Vacaville Premium Outlets. Simultaneously, police received a call of two reckless vehicles in the Outlets parking lot, one appearing to chase another.

Officers responded to the scene while looking for a black BMW sedan or SUV occupied by three African-American adults in their 20's, but no vehicles were found.

While speaking to S-Easley about the circumstances of the robbery, officers were alerted to the possibility he was in possession of a large quantity of marijuana. Further investigation revealed S-Easley was in possession of more than two pounds of marijuana, as well as concentrated cannabis. S-Easley was arrested for possession of marijuana for sale and possession of concentrated cannabis for sale. The circumstances and veracity of the robbery are still under investigation.
