ONLINE POST LEADS TO SUSPECT'S ARREST IN RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY

On Monday, June 29, 2015, a Community Services Officer (CSO) with the Vacaville Police Department investigated a residential burglary that occurred in the 200 block of Marna Drive. An unknown suspect entered the victim's garage and stole an air compressor and some power tools.

A short time later the investigating CSO was contacted by the victim after they believed they had located their stolen property posted for sale on the internet website OfferUpNow.com.

Detectives for the Investigation Services Section assisted with this case and determined the online post was associated with a local phone number and address. The stolen property was located in a vehicle that was parked in front of the residence. Detectives made contact at an address in the 100 block of Caldwell Drive and arrested Keenan Steeves, 20, of Vacaville.

Steeves was booked into Solano County Jail for residential burglary. Detectives learned Steeves also had three outstanding Solano County warrants for drugs, burglary, and shoplifting.

Anyone having information about this residential burglary is encouraged to contact Detective Chris Lechuga (707) 449-5200.
